FOREWORD

Rutgers University, chartered in 1766 as Queen's College, chosen in 1864 as the land-grant college of New Jersey by the Legislature, designated in 1945 as the State University of New Jersey by agreement between the State of New Jersey and the Trustees, is the eighth oldest college in the United States and the only colonial college which has become a state university.

The Legislative Act of 1945 and the resolution of the Trustees accepting the act provide for the designation of the University as the State University, its dedication to the public higher education of the people of the State, increased participation by the State in the management of the University and its supervision and control through visitorial powers by the State Board of Education.

We, the Class of 1950, were the first to enter and graduate from the Newark Colleges of Rutgers University since the merger of Newark University with Rutgers University in 1946.

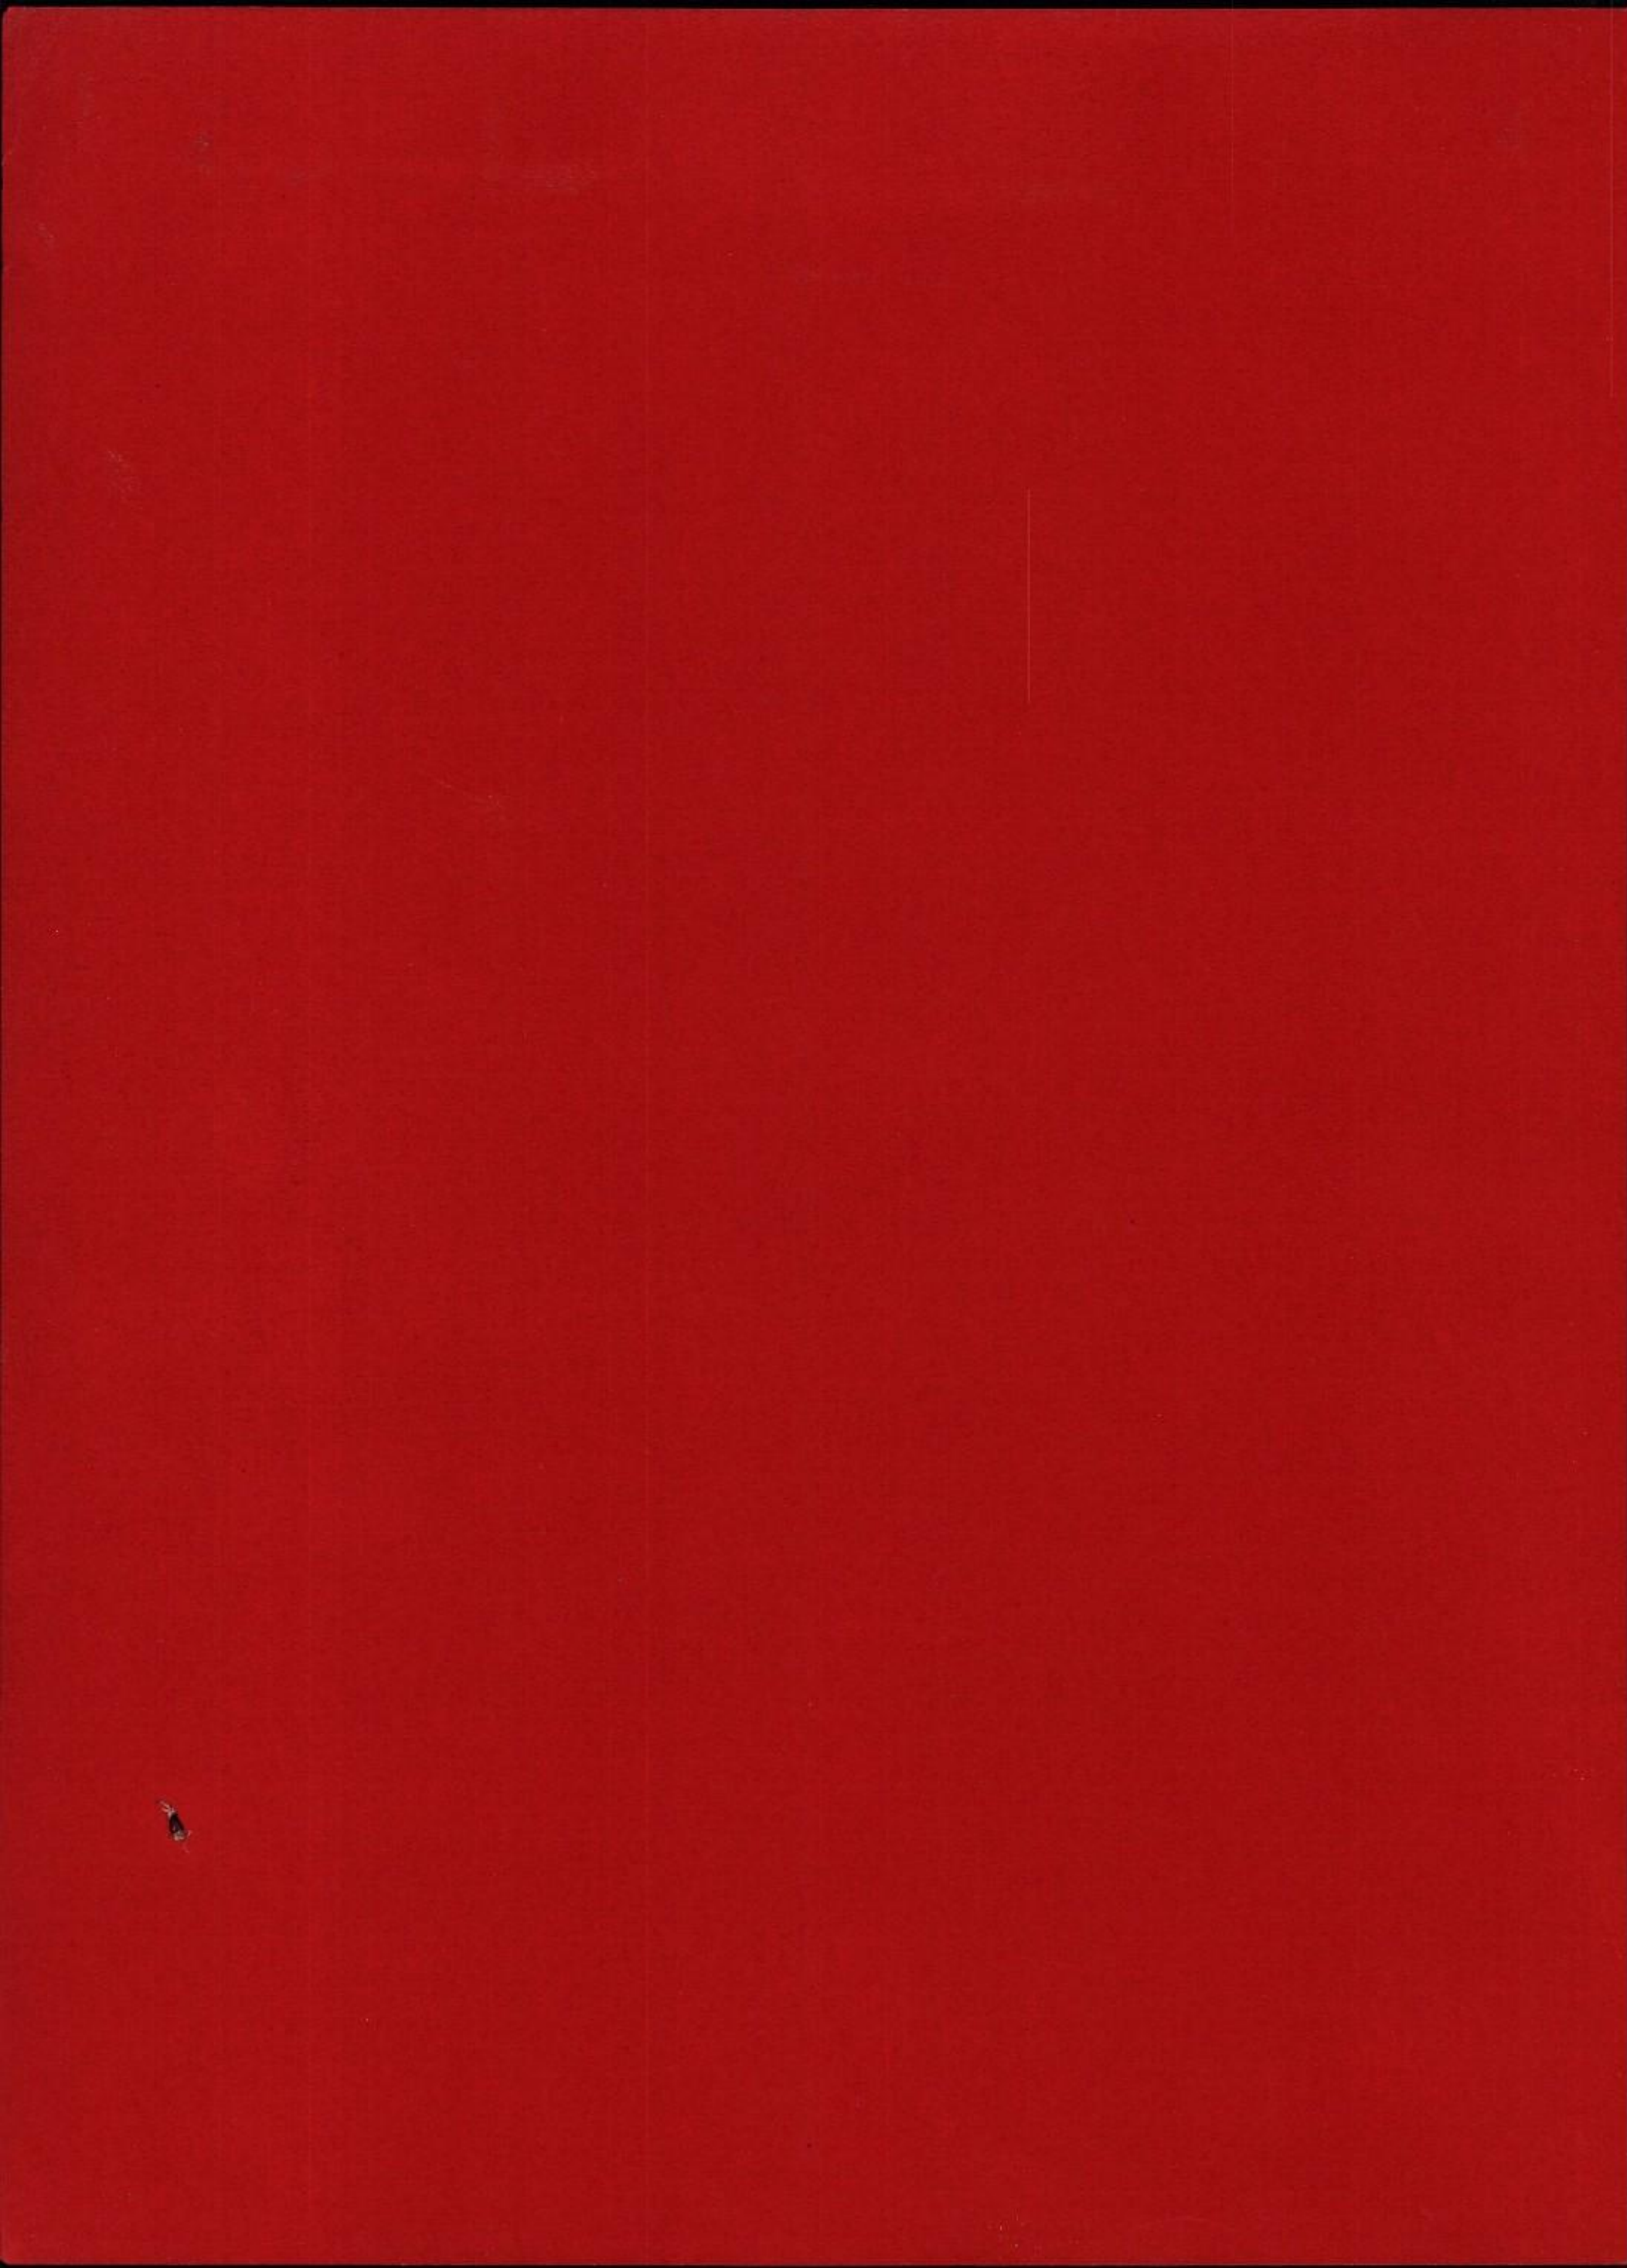

It can be said, too, that the Class of 1950 did not accept, passively, the name Rutgers; rather, we attempted to meet it with achievements. During our matriculation we were instrumental in increasing the number of student organizations from thirteen to forty-three. We aided in the establishment of the Student Lounge and were, for the most part, responsible for the cafeteria.

Since our freshman year, we have seen our college campus grow from one building, housing three schools, to a campus consisting of ten buildings. We have seen the enrollment grow from eight hundred in 1946 to two thousand three hundred in 1950. We have enjoyed the additions of a Chemistry Laboratory, a Biology Laboratory and an expanded library.

We hope future classes will continue to add to the prestige of Newark Rutgers by following our example in maintaining student - faculty - administration co-operation, and in hard work.

ORGANIZATIONS

S.B.A. STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council acts in an executive capacity for the student body of the School of Business Administration and represents the undergraduate in his relations with the administration. The Council discusses and acts upon matters which attempt to bring about improvements within the College.

As a result of changes in the School of Business Administration, the Council found it necessary to amend its Constitution, bringing it up to date with the school's progress. This year a definite style for class rings was selected and a five year contract was signed with the jewelers. The SBA Council also inaugurated a new method for awarding activity keys based on the quality of work rather than quantity.

Throughout the year Council-sponsored dances were held and were received enthusiastically by the students.

RUSBAR

The Rutgers University School of Business Administration Review, The RUSBAR, is an annual publication of the student body of the School of Business, reflecting some of the views and problems of the school and the business world.

As an official student publication, The RUSBAR provides readers with unbiased, factual business information obtained through the efforts of the students and alumni of the School of Business Administration. The School has received a great deal of praise as a result of these articles.

This review has helped to foster a close, congenial relationship between the student and faculty, and among the business enterprises of the New Jersey Metropolitan area.

ACCOUNTING CLUB

Now in its fourth year, the Accounting Club has tried to promote a closer affiliation between SBA students and the business world. The club strives specifically to stimulate a greater interest in the profession of accounting and to encourage activities beyond the required work of the classroom.

During the past year, members of the club were given the opportunity to hear many qualified speakers from the business world and have thus become aware of some of the problems they will meet in the field of accounting. One of the speakers, Mr. Marshall Thomas, President of the New Jersey Chapter of Certified Public Accountants, spoke on C.P.A. regulations and opportunities in the public accounting field. Another speaker, Mr. Percy Proctor spoke on opportunities in Administrative and Industrial Accounting.

FINANCE CLUB

The Finance Club attempted to bring a composite representation of the world of practical business to the business student. Prominent men in the field of business and finance spoke to the Club on topics of current interest. Field trips were arranged: The New York Federal Reserve Bank, the New York Stock Exchange, the offices of the "Wall Street Journal" were among the business centers visited.

The Club also maintained an advisory service which aided the finance student and other students in specialized fields of business. An attempt was made to solve the problems of the student with a practical view constantly in mind. Through this service, students are directed into channels of study and information conforming to their needs and interests.

MANAGEMENT CLUB

The Newark Chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management organized as the Management Club in 1947, has attempted to provide the student with an opportunity for self-development and to expose him to the practical as well as theoretical aspects of management. To help fulfill these aims the group took field trips to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, to view the Bethlehem Steel Plant in operation and to Eddystone, Pennsylvania, to see the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

The program for the year also included many guest speakers. A few were John Whitmore, of the Public Relations Council; Parvin Russell, Director of College Placement for the New Jersey Bell Telephone Company; Richard Dorian, Past President of the Society for Advancement of Management; and Bernard Haldane, President of Executive Job Counselors, Inc. A field trip to General Motors Corporation is being planned.

MARKETING CLUB

Since its inception in 1947, the Marketing Club has attempted to give to students a view of the marketing processes in actual operation. Through the use of films, field trips, and speakers, such as Mr. Philip Applegard of the Alumni Association, Mr. Serge Morosoff of Pacific Mills, Mr. M. C. Diedrich of Diedrich Advertising Service, Dr. Herman C. Nolen of McKesson & Robbins, and Mr. J. Leo Cooke of Lehigh Warehouse & Transport Company, discussing advertising, wholesaling, retailing, and selling, the club has in some measure bridged the gap between the classroom and the business world. Many questions were considered, including the very practical ones of job possibilities, requirements, and compensation.

Recently, the Club became a student chapter of the American Marketing Association and now members have available to them, at low cost, THE JOURNAL OF MARKETING, a valuable aid to people interested in this field. Besides assisting the club in its objectives and activities, the A.M.A., through the North Jersey Chapter, gives students an opportunity to sit in on lively discussions on marketing by prominent men in the field.

C.A.S. STUDENT COUNCIL

As the student governing body, the CAS Student Council recognizes and encourages student activities on campus. After extensive research by council members budgets for CAS organizations were established based on percentages of total students registered.

With the co-operation of the Administration, the Council sponsored the installation of the Snack Bar and Student Center at 18 Washington Place which was dedicated this past fall.

A social calendar was also established which the Council hoped would become traditional. Four all-class dances, Council-sponsored, were held during the year, each one a memorable occasion. The main event of the year was a banquet-dance held at the Meadowbrook Country Club on the last evening of the school year at which time all school awards were presented.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Senior Class Officers of the 1949-50 year have conscientiously endeavored to draw all the seniors together into one group working for common goals. The Senior Class sponsored a Barn Dance at the Student Lounge in January of this year which was met enthusiastically by all the students who attended.

Plans for Class Nite on June 7 have been completed. They include parodies on skits from the Broadway show "Pins and Needles" with members of the graduating class participating and presentation of awards. The semi-formal Senior Prom is scheduled for June 5 at the Moresque.

The OBSERVER'S changeover from a bi-monthly to a weekly publication early in 1950 gave the student body more complete and up-to-date news and enabled more students to participate on the staff.

By sponsoring projects such as the slogan contest for basketball games, the outstanding "Bomber" trophy award, the Campus Queen Contest, and a Commuter survey for lower transportation rates, the OBSERVER gave impetus to much school spirit.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

A student affiliate chapter of the parent organization, the American Chemical Society has fostered interest in scientific inquiry, research, the dissemination of knowledge among the members of the Society, the presentation of student papers, and the application of chemistry to our daily life.

The Society has planned its activities to aid the members in acquiring necessary pre-professional experience. Guest speakers were Professor Gilbert Panson, who gave a talk on colloidal electrolytes, Mr. Hammond, of Heydon Chemical Co., who discussed the theory and practice involved in synthetic organic chemistry and Professor Carl Olson who spoke to the members on the functions and the administrative capacities of the American Chemical Society. A technical film revealed the problems confronting the chemist in the field of synthetic and natural rubber. Additional information on this subject was obtained when the members visited the United States Rubber Company plant in Passaic.

DEBATING SOCIETY

Representing the Newark Colleges of Rutgers, the Debating Society participated in over fifty intercollegiate debates. With such schools as Cornell, Boston College, West Point, and Georgetown on their schedule the members have traveled as far south as Maryland and north to the New England States.

Although the Society devotes most of its activities to these meets, the members have also engaged in several radio debates against Rutgers of New Brunswick and have presented a demonstration debate for a local high school.

As a climax to their activities this year the members participated in tournaments at Temple University, Rutgers of New Brunswick, and Brooklyn College.

ENGLISH CLUB

The English Club was organized in 1936 to foster literary scholarship and to stimulate interest in literature and the allied arts. Each year, members of the Club attend concerts, exhibits, and plays that may be of particular interest to them.

The monthly programs for 1949-1950 included a talk on Beaumarchais by Mr. Jewell, a professor-student quiz, readings in foreign-language literature, a Christmas program of folk dances and group singing. Some of the sessions were devoted to the reading of student manuscripts, followed by piano selections by Nina Liss; attendance at Station WNJR for one of the concerts given by the music staff of the College and the Music Society as part of their Bach festival; an address by Frederic Melcher, editor of Publishers' Weekly; the annual music program under the direction of Dr. Mann, and the annual business and supper meeting.

An especially successful undertaking is the annual high school poetry reading contest. The Club sponsors this contest and awards a cup to the winning school. Prominent teachers and writers act as judges.

GEOLOGY CLUB

One of the newest organizations at Newark Colleges is the Geology Club, having been formed in the fall of this year. The group was started to promote interest in the field of geology, and at the present time consists of all geology majors but it is hoped that next year will find students in other fields joining the organization.

The activities of the club included open meetings featuring movies obtained from the U. S. Department of the Interior and a talk on evolution by Dr. Horace E. Wood 2nd, of the faculty. Regular bi-monthly informal meetings are held in the geology laboratory. Many of the members attended the annual spring field trip and all attended the Science Society meeting featuring Meredith Johnson, N. J. State Geologist, who spoke on the mineral resources of the state.

A series of three lectures were held during the spring term: The first conducted by Professor Richard Henry and the Mathematics Staff on "Mathematics in College?", the second, "Logic in Mathematics," by Mr. Charles Biederman, and the third by William Van Hassel, the club president, on "Tricks in Mathematics."

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The National Students Association is a nationwide organization of almost four hundred college student bodies which are represented by local committees. The Association was created to provide a medium to foster the cultural, social and educational advancement of students the world over.

This year the Newark Colleges of Rutgers University set up a Commuter-Survey Committee to begin a study which will ultimately determine how many students in the state travel to school and what means of transportation they use. These statistics will be presented to the Public Utilities Board for the purpose of obtaining lower commuter-rates for students.

The International Affairs Committee with the support of the Newman Club and Alpha Phi Omega, formulated and put into action a plan of enlightenment on international problems through films and lectures. They also sponsored a plan whereby several foreign students will be adopted and provided for by the students of this school.

For the third consecutive year, the Newark College of Arts and Sciences was represented at the United Nations Model General Assembly which is sponsored by the colleges and universities of the Middle Atlantic area. Each school selects a small group of competent students to represent the international position of a particular nation at the Assembly. This year the Newark delegation presented and defended the international point-of-view and aspirations of Byelo Russia.

Topics of international stature were discussed at the Assembly at the City College of New York in a manner closely paralleling that which is employed by the United Nations. Treaties, security, and atomic energy were the main topics discussed.

Upon entering the Newark Colleges, every woman student is automatically eligible to become a member of the Women's Association. Organized to promote friendship among the small group of women students enrolled at the College, the group has materially helped the new women students in acclimating themselves to life at the Newark Colleges.

The activities of the group were extensive this year. A Freshman Tea designed to welcome all new women students opened the season. The annual Christmas Party was a tremendous success with record-breaking crowd at the gaily decorated Student Center to receive gifts from Santa Leader and listen to the Glee Club render the most beautiful and famous Christmas Carols; dancing, and refreshments climaxed the evening. The annual talent Show at the YMCA revealed many potential stage personalities and a series of explorers' picnics made up of faculty and students, afforded many happy Sundays. The group is also planning a fashion show to be held in the Fall of next year.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

Beta Gamma Sigma is the national scholastic honor fraternity of accredited schools of business. The Alpha Chapter of New Jersey was established in the School of Business Administration in 1942.

Eligibility for membership in the Alpha Chapter of New Jersey, is restricted to those students standing in the top ten percent of the graduating class. From those eligible for consideration, election is made on the basis of outstanding service and high original scholarship.

The Annual Initiation Banquet of the Society was addressed this year by Dean G. Rowland Collins, School of Commerce, Accounts, and Finance of New York University.

PHI BETA KAPPA

Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest honor society in American colleges, was founded at the College of William and Mary on December 5, 1776.

Election to membership is based primarily on high achievement in scholarship; and the field in which the Society operates is that of the liberal arts and sciences, as distinct from specialized professional or technical fields.

Nominations for the election of candidates from the Newark Colleges are made by a membership committee of Alpha of New Jersey, the Rutgers Chapter with which we are affiliated. The committee is made up of representatives of the sections of the parent chapter, including our own section.

The election of seniors takes place soon after the middle of the senior year and may not exceed ten per cent of the class enrollment. The election of juniors occurs shortly after the middle of the junior year and is restricted to a maximum of two per cent of the class enrollment.

Alpha of New Jersey dates from February 22, 1869.

SIGMA XI

Organized at Cornell University in 1886 to give recognition to outstanding students of science, Sigma Xi does not confine consideration to any one branch of science and lays particular emphasis on research. There are two grades of membership: associate, which indicates research promise and active, which indicates research accomplishment. An individual may be elected to active membership at any time before or after graduation when he has demonstrated sufficient research ability, and he may be elected to active membership although he was never an associate member. Normally, an undergraduate is elected to the associate grade only.

Not more than ten per cent of the senior science majors at the Newark Colleges may be elected to membership. Candidates must be nominated and seconded by active members of the Rutgers Chapter. Unlike Phi Beta Kappa, high grades alone do not necessarily indicate eligibility. Research promise and originality in scientific research are the main qualifications.

Elected to the Society This Year Were

Norman Glassman	Biology
Bert King	Psychology
David Lowitz	Physics
Peter Marapodi	Chemistry
Alfred Niedermayer	Chemistry
Morris Rones	Geology
Herman Schwartz	Physics
John Van Dyke	Chemistry
William Van Hassel	Mathematics

THE PANHELLENIC ASSOCIATION

Composed of two delegates from each of the three recognized sororities at the Newark Colleges, the Panhellenic Association regulates all matters pertaining to sorority life on campus. The Association sets sorority rush dates, regulates and enforces rush rules, and encourages active sorority participation in University activities.

This year the group is planning a dance to be held in the Fall of next year in conjunction with the Inter-Fraternity Council. A Spring picnic for all sororities and fraternities was sponsored by the Panhellenic Association and the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Other activities included the continuation of their volunteer work in the Library at the Beth Israel Hospital, a theatre-supper party in New York, a Pledge Party, and the annual dinner-dance at the Condor Supper Club.

The Inter-Fraternity Council is an organization which co-ordinates the athletic and social activities involving the fraternities at the Newark Colleges of Rutgers University. The membership of the council is composed of two representatives from each fraternity.

Among the athletic activities sponsored and conducted by the council are intramural leagues in touch football, softball, basketball, and bowling which was recently introduced. Trophies are awarded to the outstanding teams who participate in these intramural sport events.

At least once every year, the council sponsors an inter-fraternity dance which is open to any student of the Newark Colleges of Rutgers University.

BETA SIGMA RHO

The only International Fraternity at Newark Colleges in the Inter-Fraternity Council, the Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Rho has endeavored to maintain leadership and scholarship since its inception in 1935. Each year a plaque is awarded to the outstanding freshman of the College of Arts and Science and within the Chapter the outstanding member and pledgee are presented with inscribed tokens of their special merit.

Among their activities this year were: the annual Thanksgiving and New Year's parties, a Koffee Klotch to which members of the faculty were invited, Inter-Fraternity athletics, membership in the Essex County Young Adult Council and the traditional athletic rivalry with other chapters of Beta Sigma Rho at Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania.

A professional fraternity in the field of commerce and business administration, Delta Sigma Pi was established to foster the study of business subjects in universities; to encourage scholarship and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce and to further a higher standard of commercial ethics, culture and civic welfare within the community.

During the past year Delta Sigma Pi had an active schedule of educational, social, and athletic events. Included were the Founder's Day formal dance, initiation dinners, and the Annual Spring Formal dance. Monthly professional meetings were held to which prominent business leaders were invited as guest speakers.

CHEERLEADERS

A welcome and encouraging sight for many years on our basketball court has been the cheerleading squad. With their rousing team yells the squad has helped considerably to urge our team to victory. Their enthusiasm is a fine example of school spirit.

Vacancies on the squad are filled in the fall of each year. All aspiring candidates are taught NCRU cheers by the squad members and practice together. After six weeks of training they are selected by a committee of Student Council members and members of the squad on their ability to perform the cheers. They remain on the squad throughout their years at the college.

This year's squad includes: Marilyn Honey, Captain; Florence Kurtz, Jacqueline Levy, Joyce Perselay, Judy Posner, James Rollins, Allen Roth, Delores Russomano, Eula Teel.

Being associated with winning teams is nothing new to Prof. Henry Bodner, who has just completed his sixteenth year at the Newark Colleges. As Director of Athletics and coach of basketball, he has consistently turned out winning teams.

In his undergraduate days at Panzer College, Bodner was selected for one of Grantland Rice's All-American Basketball teams and gained recognition as an All-Eastern soccer player. Prior to his college days he attended Passaic High School and was a member of the famous "Wonder Five."

Besides coaching basketball Bodner directs the varsity baseball squad in the Spring.

BASKETBALL

Two individual scoring marks fell as the NCRU basketball team completed its 1949-50 season with a record of 12 wins and 10 defeats. Big Burt Geltzeiler shattered the seasonal scoring mark formerly held by Hesh Cohen as he threw in a total of 445 points. He also made history when he became the first player in the school to score 1,000 points. He concluded his career by running his total to 1,222.

Rounding out the starting quintet at the end of the season were Dick Serratelli, Bernie Lauer, Jerry Kasper and Don Mopsik. John McDonnell, 6'4" Freshman, alternated with Mopsik at center.

After dropping their first two games to Manhattan and Rutgers of New Brunswick, the Bombers came back to register five straight triumphs to mark their longest winning streak of the year. Paterson State, Upsala, Arnold College, Bridgeport University and Newark College of Engineering being the victims.

After registering their season's high of 79 points against Paterson State, the Newark team played what was probably its finest game of the year when it beat Upsala 60-55. With a minute and a half remaining, the Bombers scored nine points to win.

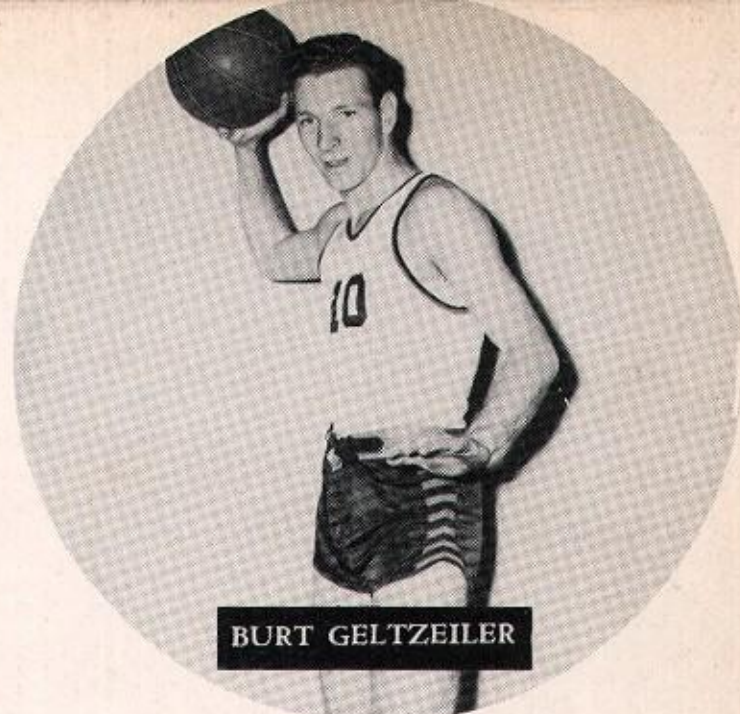

On the road in Connecticut NCRU scored two stunning upsets and when they beat NCE at home, they ranked among the best teams in the state.

The Rutgers winning streak ended in Philadelphia, when the Bombers lost a 66-54 decision to a powerful St. Joseph's quintet. Fouls made the difference, as the Newark club could only convert on seven out of thirty-one tries. Weakness from the foul line was apparent all season. At the end of the year the team's average in that department was only .533.

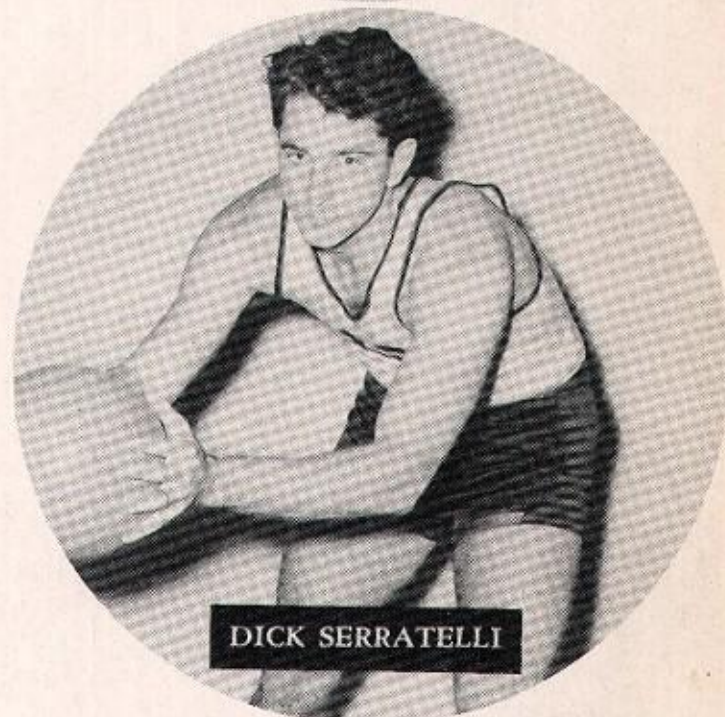

Later on, the NCRU squad defeated a Montclair State team that was playing without the services of their star center, Al Gifford. The Bombers piled up 77 points and the game never was in doubt.

Following this victory the team dropped three straight games. Playing against a strong St. Peter's team at Jersey City, the NCRU team was badly beaten. The 35 point margin at the end of the game marked the worst defeat of the season.

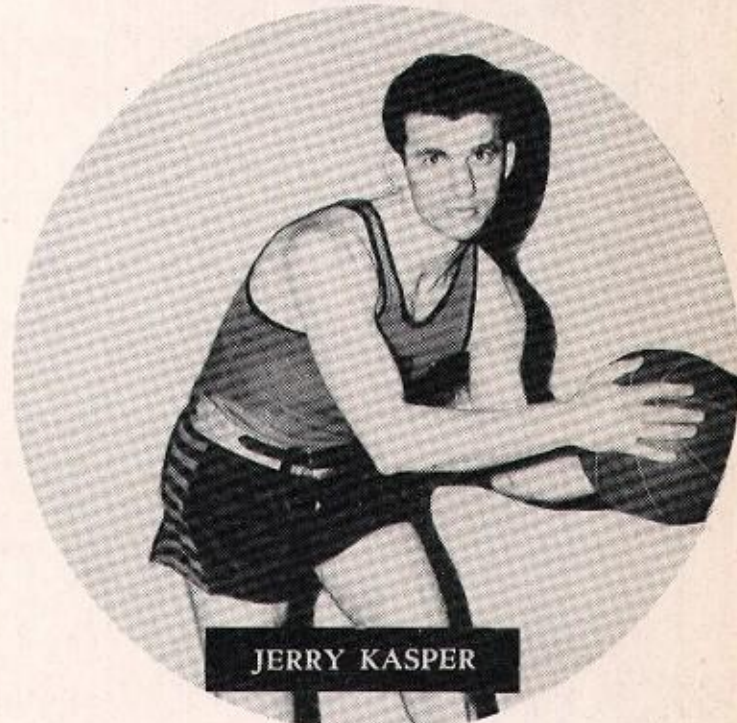

Highly rated Brooklyn College was the next team to stop NCRU. For 16 minutes of the first half the teams battled on even terms with NCRU trailing by four points. Then six straight points by the Kingsmen broke the game wide open. There were two bright spots for the Bombers in this game however. Dick Serratelli returned to the form he had displayed earlier in the season against Manhattan and Rutgers. The contest also saw Burt Geltzeiler score his 1,000th point and he was presented the ball in a colorful ceremony at the Brooklyn gym.

One, two, three, alary.

You heard what the boss said!

Thanks, boys, for a swell season.

Even the opponents score once in a while.

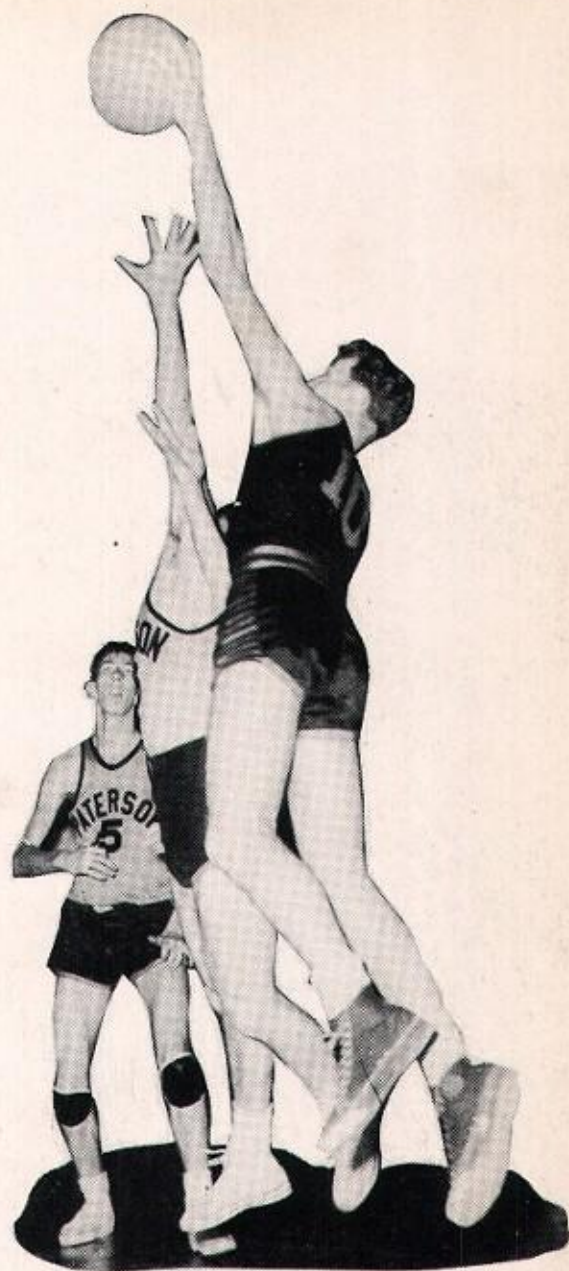

Moving over to the Orange Armory, the Newark team was upset by the Panzer quintet. Leaving the floor at half time with a sizeable lead, the Bombers literally fell apart in the second half and lost the ball game.

Returning to the friendly confines of the Pharmacy Gymnasium, NCRU finally came out of their slump with a 74-64 victory over Pace College. They followed this win with a triumph over King's Point at the Mariners Gym. In this game Geltzeiler scored 30 points.

Losses to Montclair and Upsala, and victories over Pratt and Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute set the stage for the traditional Pharmacy College game. Seeking their first victory over the Newark school in 15 years of basketball competition, the Druggists jumped off to an early lead and left the floor ahead at half time. In the second half they stretched the margin to seven points before the Bombers came to life. Big Don Mopsik caught fire and threw in 20 points to lead NCRU to a onesided 70-56 win.

On the road again NCRU suffered its final defeat of the campaign by a score of 65-49 at Queens College. The Bombers were off in their shooting and the accuracy of the Queens team ultimately won the game for them.

In the last game of the season, Coach Bodner's men coasted to a 78-70 triumph over NCE. Leading at half time by a 40-24 score, the coach used mainly reserves in the second half. When an NCE rally cut the lead to six points, he hustled his starters back into the ball game, and they were able to freeze the ball for the remaining three minutes.

BASEBALL

As the 1950 ENCORE went to press, Coach Hank Bodner's baseball squad was preparing to undertake an ambitious 14 game schedule. A 55-man squad, which Bodner expects to trim to 20 men, has begun its practicing and will open against St. Peter's College of Jersey City on April 13.

Lou Lesniak, who twirled a 3-hit shutout for last season's only victory, heads the parade of 12 lettermen returning to the fold. Also back on the mound are Don O'Brien, Bernie Lauer and John Funicolare. A freshman possibility, Bill Swartz, will try his hand for the Bombers as will Guy Lanza, CAS sophomore.

The outfield situation is also brighter with the return of four men, Dick Serratelli, Burt Ironson, Ed Janus, and Arnie Ehrich. In the infield Short-stop Sandy Pollack, lone veteran, forms the nucleus of what looks like a dependable inner defense. Letterman Jerry Brooks appears to have the inside track on the catcher's job.

This past season was one of Coach George Cukro's most successful since coming to NCRU three years ago. After developing a promising Cross-Country squad in the fall, he took up his duties as J.V. Basketball coach and directed the squad to a highly satisfying season.

After graduation from Mount Union College, where he starred in football, Cukro attended Columbia University where he received his MA degree. He acquired his coaching experience at the Quantico Marine Post School, Columbia University, and Georgia Teachers' College.

J. V. BASKETBALL

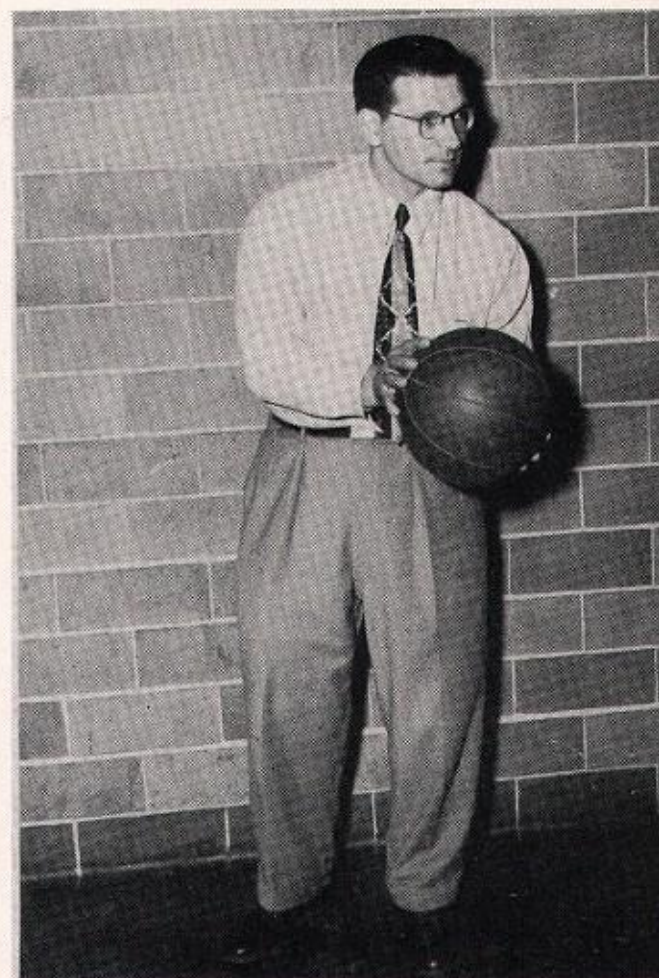

A bright future looms ahead for future NCRU varsity teams if this year's jayvee record can be used as an indication.

Coach George Cukro's jayvee squad consisted almost entirely of freshman. Sophomore Leo Wallerius was the only upper-classman on the 14 man squad. This factor alone has varsity Coach Hank Bodner looking to the jayvees for future support.

The jayvees had an overall record of 7 wins and 10 losses for the '49-'50 season, but a further look into the record book proves definitely that the little Bombers were much better than their record indicated. Of their 10 losses, the jayvees lost 6 of them by 5 points or less with a 66-65 defeat by Panzer victory the closest.

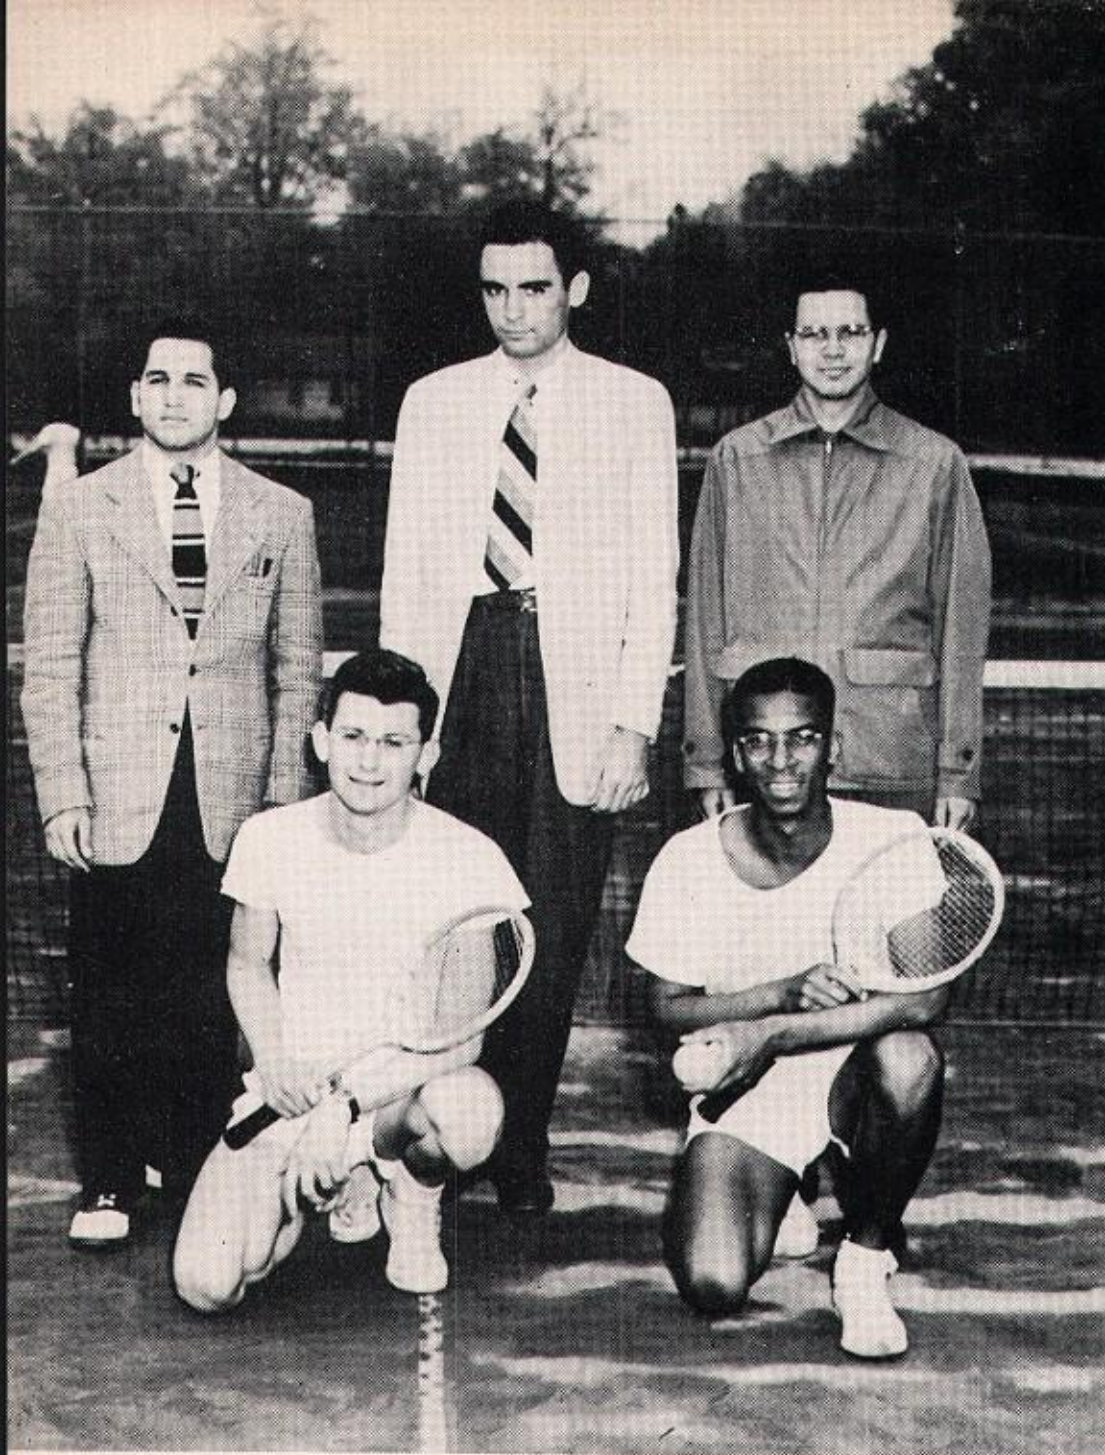

The jayvees got off to a slow start by losing 7 of their first 9 encounters but a 4 game winning streak near the end of the schedule made it a more respectable season.

The abilities of the jayvee mainstays was proven in the latter part of the season when Tex Ferguson, top-scorer Joe Crisofi (178 points), Richard Scribner and Lew Azaroff moved up to the Varsity for three big games and each gave a good account of himself.

Whether it is the angle of a rebound on the court or a right triangle on the blackboard, Morton Hellman, coach of the tennis team is right at home. Although he is a full time instructor of mathematics, Mr. Hellman has found time each Spring to give lessons to the NCRU netmen.

Coach Hellman has been acquainted with the court game for a long time. He began as a high school player. Later, while attending the City College of New York, competition against spirited opposition provided additional experience for him.

This past season at NCRU was the fourth for the genial mathematician.

TENNIS

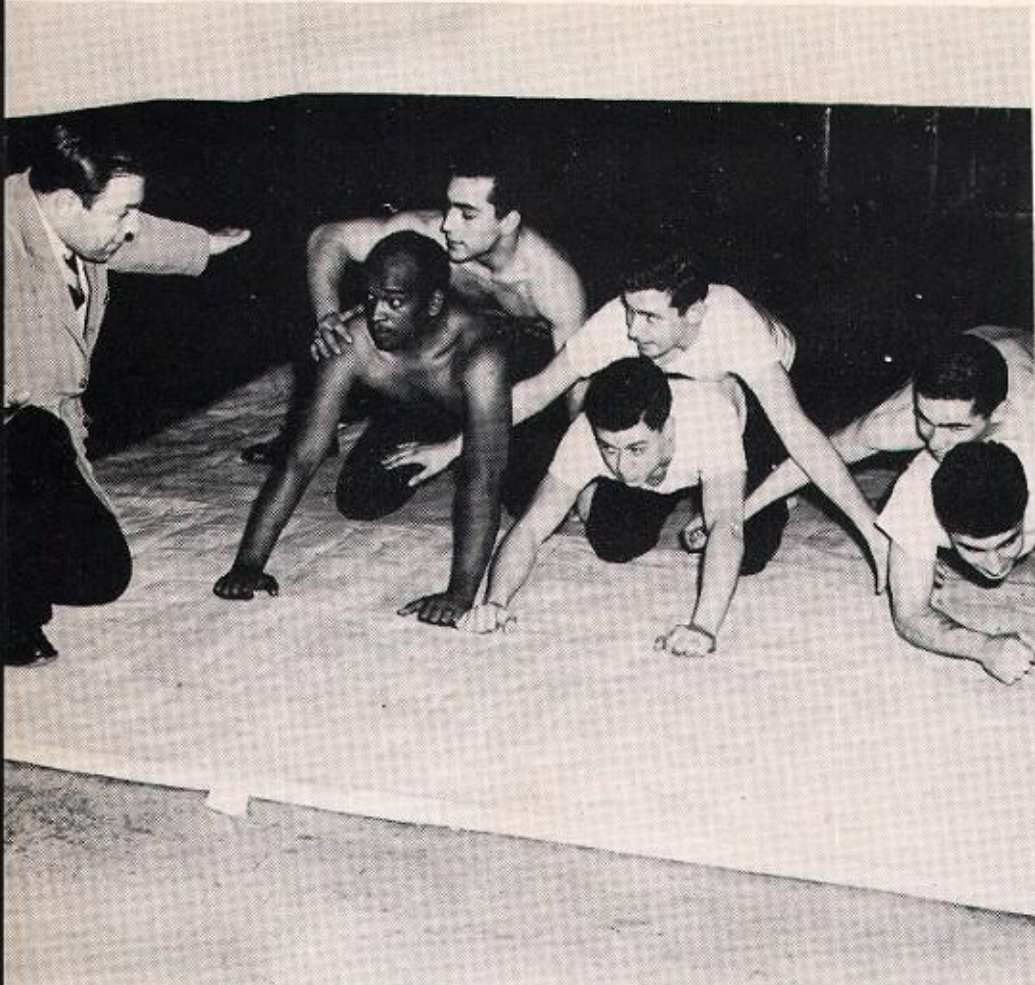

With four of last year's regulars gone, the Tennis Team faced the problem of rebuilding for the 1950 season as the Encore went to press. Cal Hurd, Sid Schneider, and Walt Perry, were the only proven netmen to return from the 1949 squad.

The eight-match schedule begins on April 11th at St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia and will close against NCE on May 12th.

WRESTLING

Although the NCRU wrestling squad ended the 1949-50 season with a record of one win and four defeats including a loss to the Newark Y in an exhibition match, they made a good showing considering the caliber of their opposition.

In their opening match of the season the Bombers were defeated 38-5 by Brooklyn Polytec, one of the best teams in the Metropolitan Area. Aggressive Tony Villane scored NCRU's lone five points by pinning his opponent.

The second meet was a 27-12 loss to Adelphi. Freshman Dave Hess and veteran, Sol Jarmell, scored pins for NCRU and Charley Colmenero fought to a draw to account for the 12 points for Rutgers.

The next week NCRU fell victim to a 38-0 shutout at the hands of the Long Island Agricultural College.

An exhibition match against the Newark Y resulted in a 21-3 loss for the Newark squad. John Zoppi scored only 3 points by a decision over his opponent. In the final match of the season a very improved wrestling squad scored their first win by defeating Upsala 30-10.

Tony Villane 120, Sol Jarmell 155, and John Zoppi 155, were the leading men on the squad. Other members were Charley Colmenero 128, Sandy Pearlman 135, Ed Rollins 135, Dave Hess 145, Bob Halsay 165, Art Kogan 175, Sandy Morton 175, and heavy weights Mal Cohen, Sal Maggio, and Paul D'Armiento.

Burt Manhoff has completed a successful first year as a member of the Physical Education Department at NCRU. Manhoff took over the leadership of the wrestling and fencing squads and both teams turned in commendable performances. Born and raised in Newark, Manhoff won letters in football and track at Weequahic High School. An Army veteran with two years in the European theatre, he then went to Rutgers N.B. where he earned varsity letters in football and track and played on the Scarlet Lacrosse team. He competed in wrestling at Montclair Teachers before the war.

He earned his Master of Education degree from Rutgers in June, 1948, and is currently studying for his doctorate.

FENCING

In a year which produced as many varied scores as possible, the NCRU fencing squad ended the scheduled season with three triumphs, a tie and two losses.

The foilsmen opened with a 8-1 runaway triumph over Pratt Institute, and paradoxically closed with a 7-2 drubbing at the hands of Drew University. Between these two "about face" meets were sandwiched a victory and a tie with Montclair State Teachers, a loss to NCE and a win over the Montclair YMCA. The tie with MSTC was disappointing since the NCRU squad held a 7-2 edge at one time.

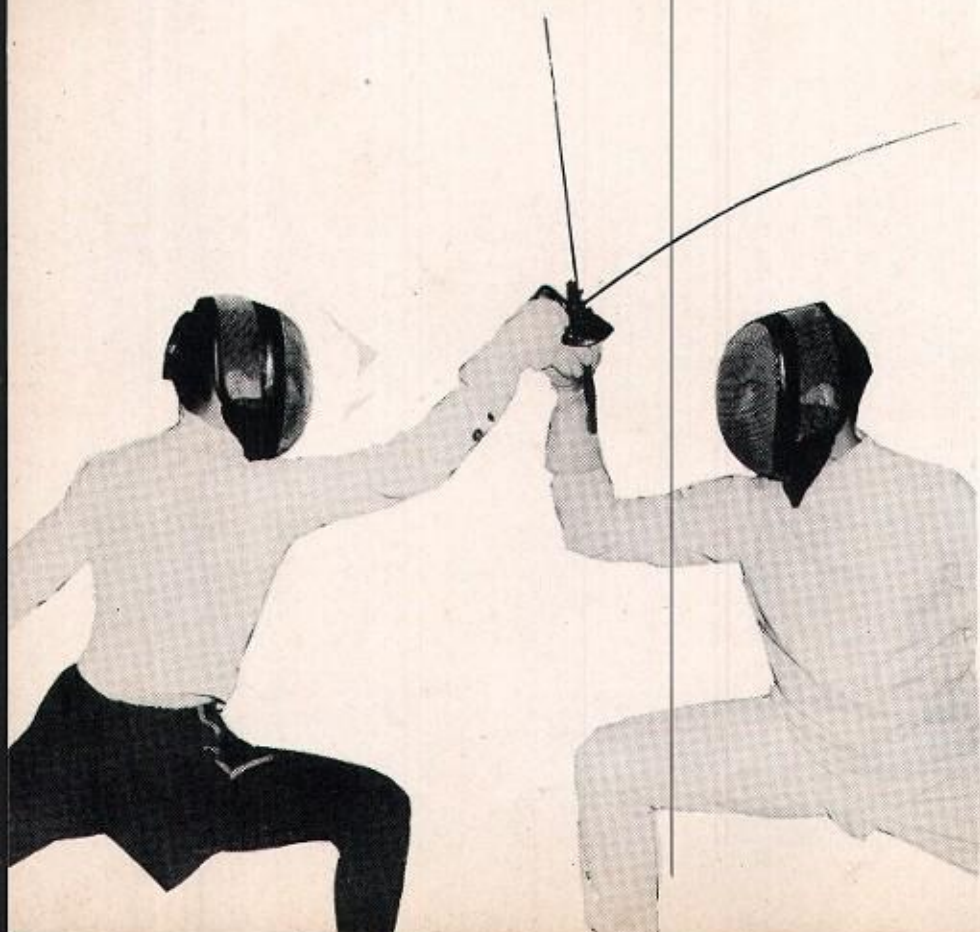

Fencing for Newark were Anthony Villane, Paul Argiriou, Mel Strauss, Al Bromfield and Lee Bernstein. Villane's record was particularly impressive as he went the whole season without dropping a bout. At press-time, Coach Manhoff's charges were entered in the NCE Invitational Meet.

GOLF

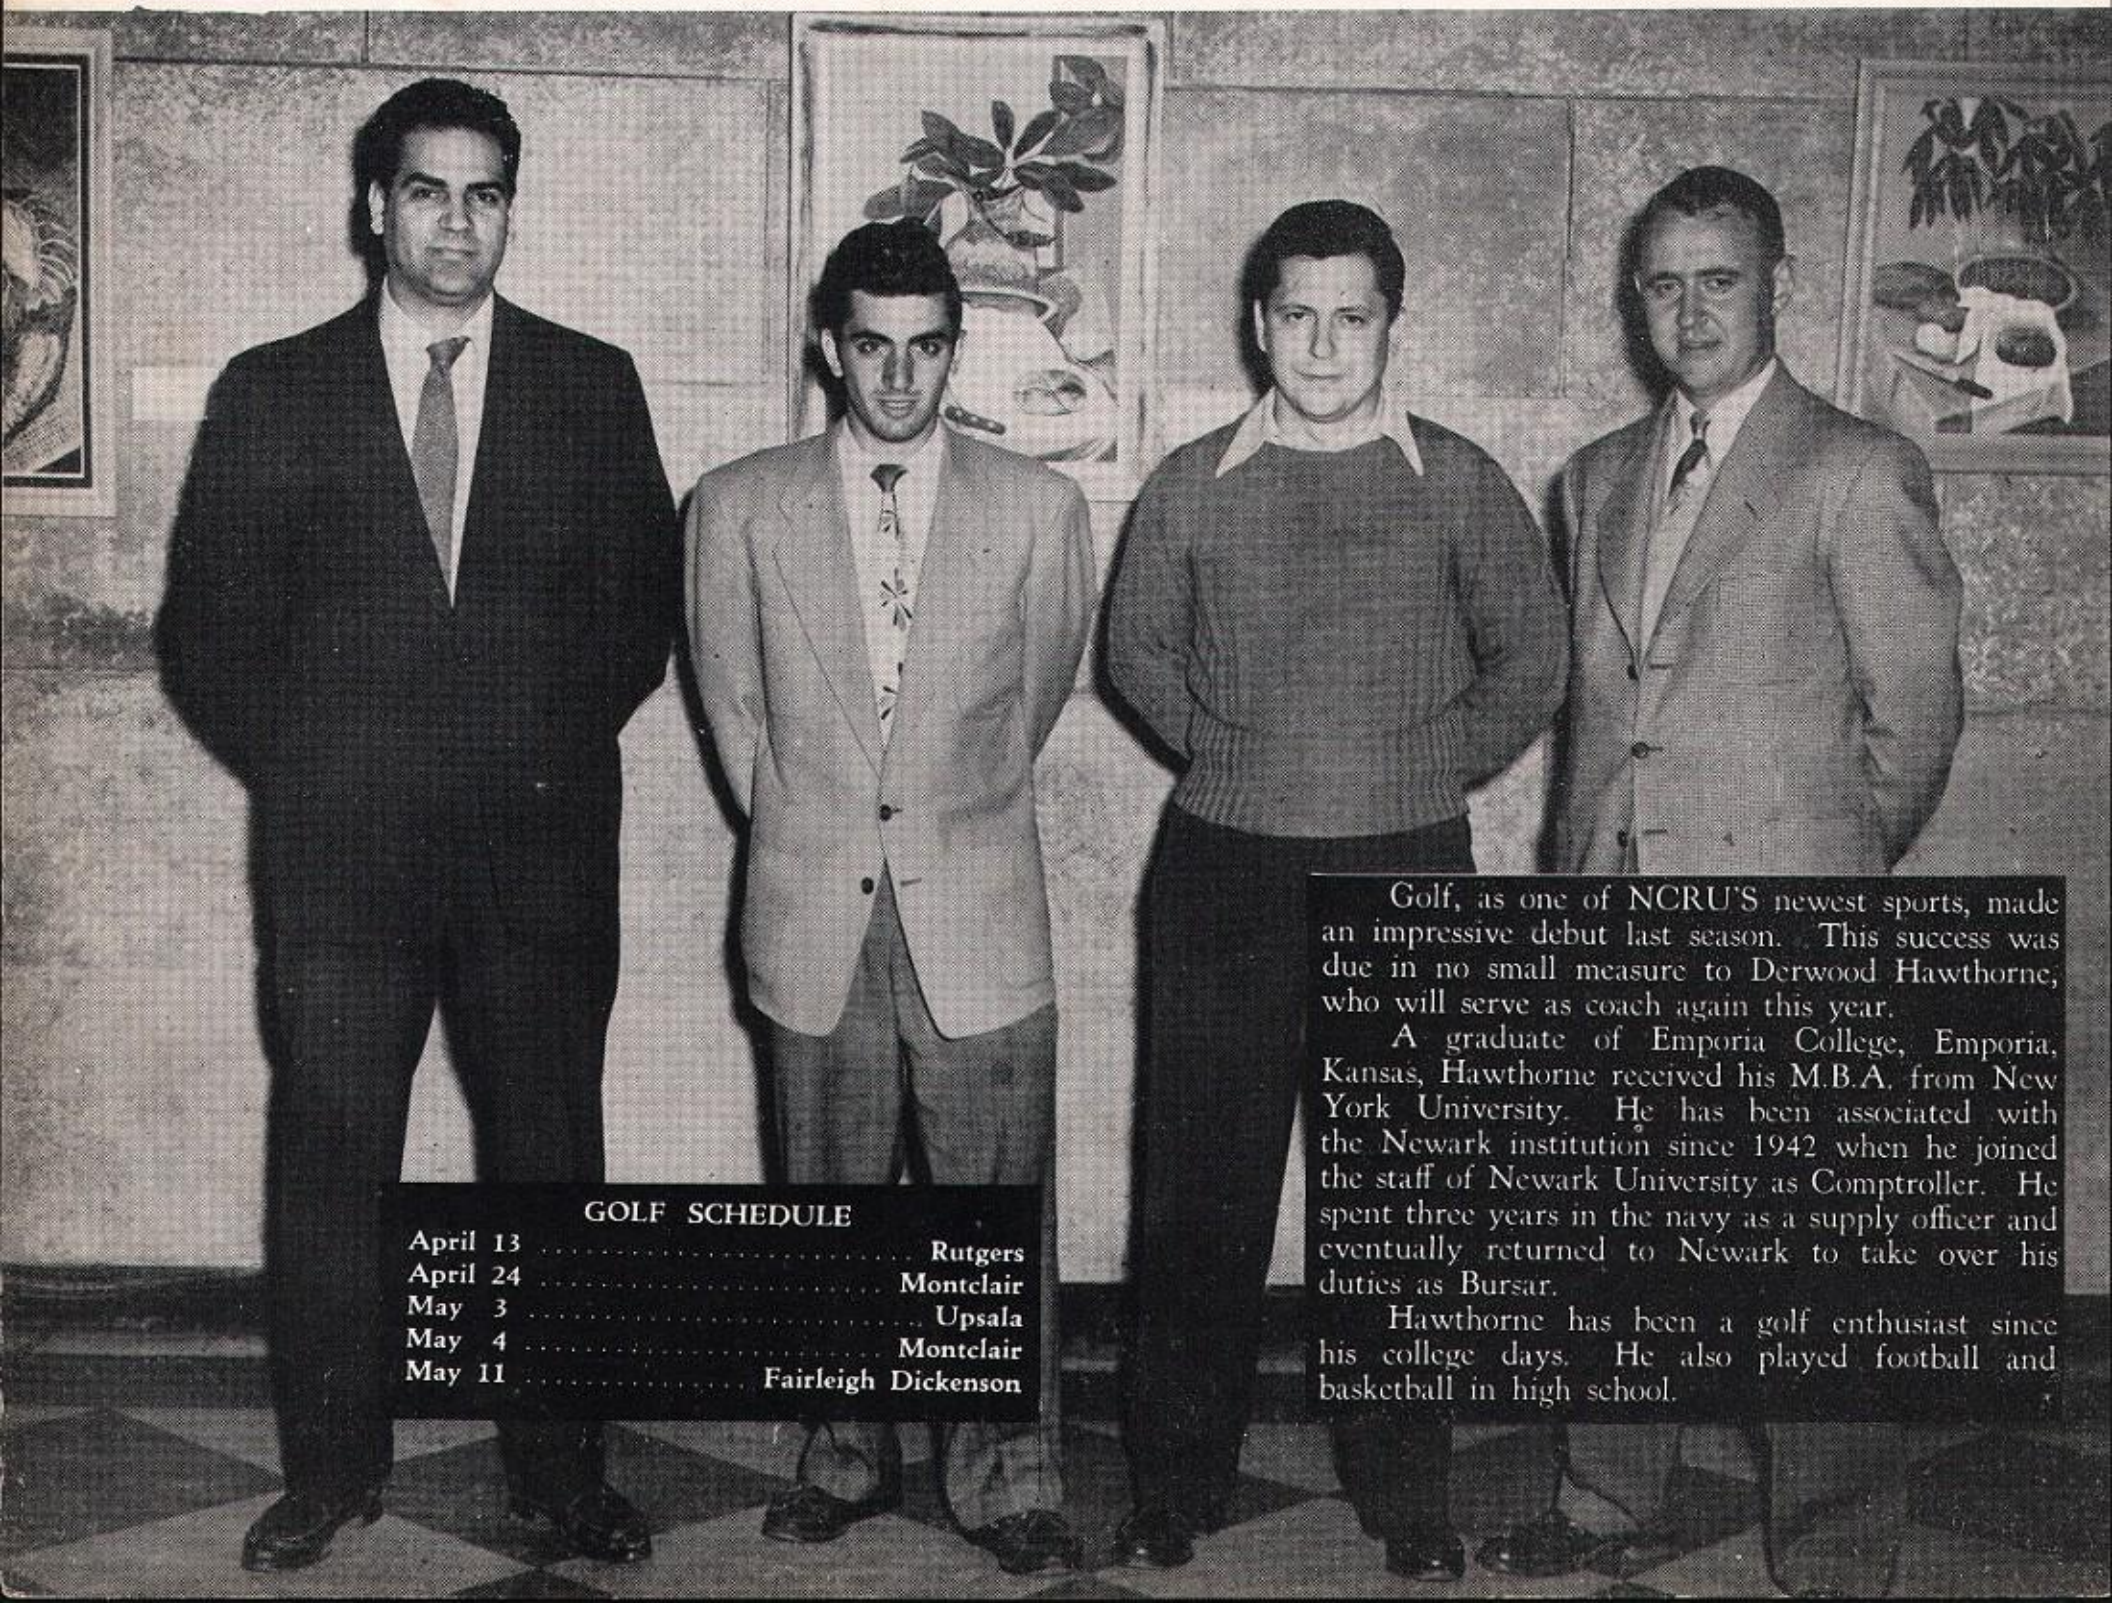

With an abundance of candidates trying out for this year's golf team, at press time Coach Derwood Hawthorne felt confident that this year's squad would equal if not better the good showing of last season.

This is the second year that NCRU will be represented by an inter-collegiate golf team and they will undertake an ambitious five-meet schedule.

Veterans Fred Vossbruch and Mike Salzarulo are expected to give good accounts of themselves for NCRU. New candidates for the squad included Michael Chomia, Gerald Pissamo, Rodger Wiley, Charles Robertello, Hugh Williams, Stan Haggerty, Bud Musica, Robert Burns, and Arthur Bauer.

The season's schedule was composed of the same five teams that the Newark squad met last season. Against this competition, the team compiled a better than .500 record.

Golf, as one of NCRU'S newest sports, made an impressive debut last season. This success was due in no small measure to Derwood Hawthorne, who will serve as coach again this year.

A graduate of Emporia College, Emporia, Kansas, Hawthorne received his M.B.A. from New York University. He has been associated with the Newark institution since 1942 when he joined the staff of Newark University as Comptroller. He spent three years in the navy as a supply officer and eventually returned to Newark to take over his duties as Bursar.

Hawthorne has been a golf enthusiast since his college days. He also played football and basketball in high school.

The Student Center and Snack Bar in the basement of the Washington Place building was formally dedicated by Dr. Mason Gross, Provost of Rutgers University, when he cut the tape on October 5, 1949. In his address, Dr. Gross stated that this Center was a great step forward for and by the students of NCRU.

The Center is a joint project of the CAS Council and the University. The Council contributed six thousand dollars to its construction and the remainder was presented by the University.

BUSINESS LUNCHEON CONFERENCES

The Business Luncheon Conferences, a unique part of the business student's education, supplying those necessary elements of education not obtainable in the class room, were inaugurated in 1946 by Dean George Esterly and the faculty of the School of Business Administration. Six conferences are held during the year at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark and attendance is required of all second year students.

The conferences affords the opportunity to the student to widen his circle of acquaintances as prominent leaders in government and business attend these sessions and sit with the students. The students also gain poise and assurance by meeting and talking to these successful business men which contributes to the development of character and personality of the future business man and community leader.

The meeting is presided over by students who act as toastmaster and chairman while table hosts receive and entertain the guests. Dr. Louis P. Starkweather of the Department of Finance is chairman of the faculty committee of the Business Luncheon Conferences.

C.A.S. DANCES

The Elizabethian Room at the Hotel Essex House was jammed with couples when, swaying to the music of Paul Manning and his orchestra, the Freshman Dance on October 7th inaugurated the school year's social program.

Hearty welcomes were extended to the Freshmen by Irving Pawa, President of the College of Arts and Science Student Council, and Mr. Edward Durand, Dean of Students. Master of Ceremonies "Red" Graifman sparked the affair with his bright wit.

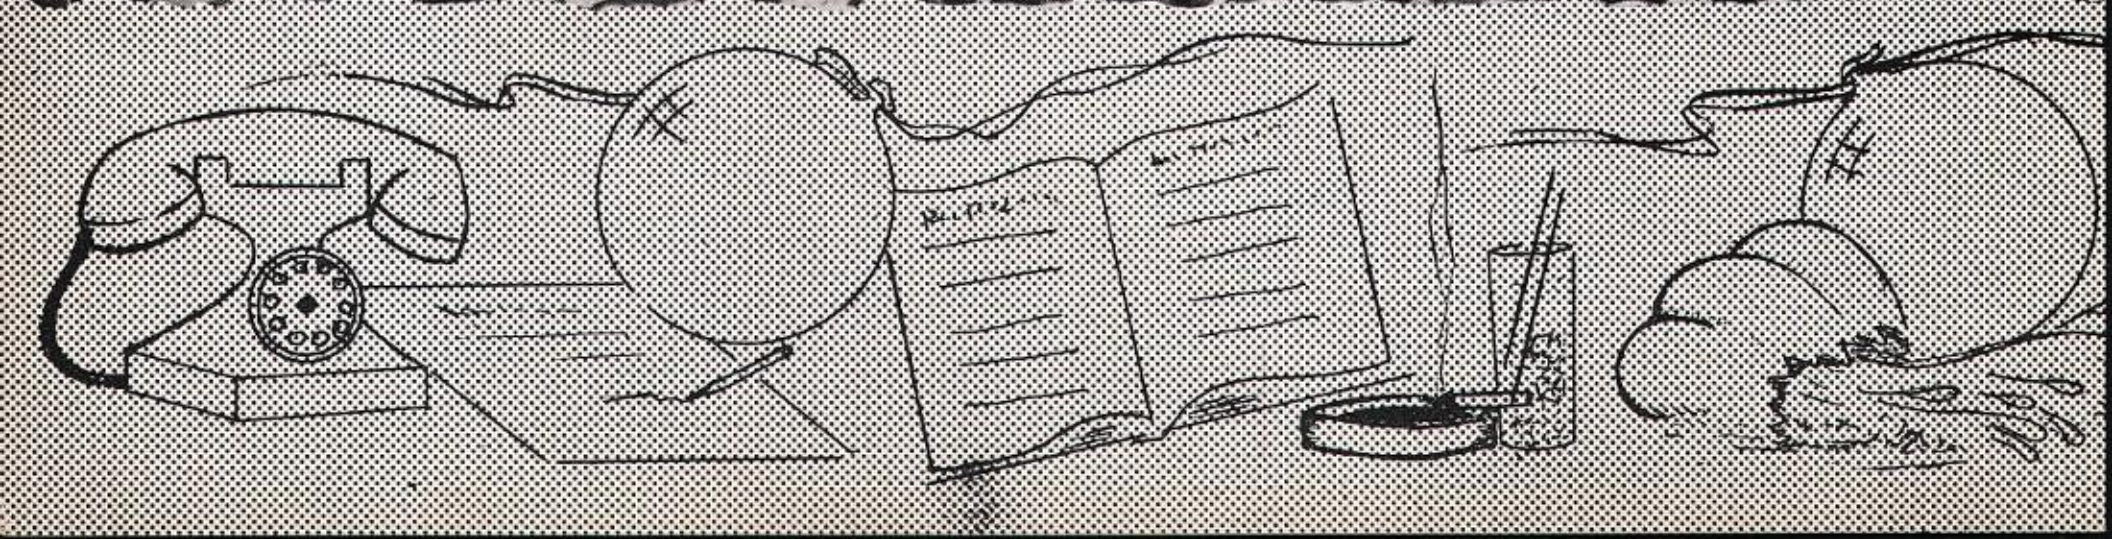

The annual Christmas Dinner Dance sponsored by the CAS Student Council was held on December 16th at the Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove. Looking very un-student-like in their semi-formal attire, three hundred couples danced around the floor, played games and cheered the amateur "wanna-lead-a-band" entrants. Dita Abram of the CAS won. Jerry Ziering emceed.

S.B.A. DANCE

With football as the theme, to commemorate the first collegiate football contest in the country, the Rutgers-Princeton game, the SBA held its first informal dance of the season at the Robert Treat Hotel Grand Ballroom on October 28th.

An interesting event of the evening was the presentation of a football as a door prize to the student with the winning ticket. The ball was inscribed with the signatures of the entire Rutgers football team and its coaches. The football was made available through the co-operation of the Alumni Federation.

Professor and Mrs. William vonMinden and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Edwards were faculty chaperones.

Who said Santa Claus isn't real?

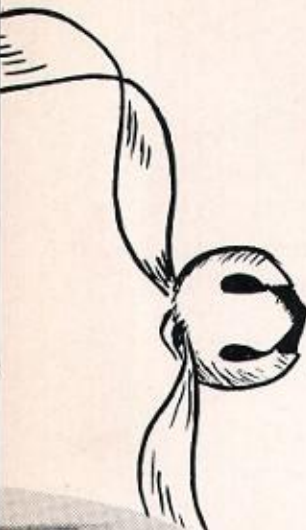

Ooooooh, what muscles!

The Women's Association held their traditional Christmas party on December 22 and traditional fun was had by all. The Washington Place lounge was festively decorated with the season's greenery but the mistletoe was most appreciated. The gifts which were the admittance fee for the affair were redistributed by rosy-cheeked, potbellied (pillow packed, we think), Santa William Leader. Half of the gifts were sent to charitable organizations.

Dr. Alfred Mann led the Rutgers Glee Club in the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Irene Jordan led a group through some high-stepping folk dances. Between events refreshments gave the revelers added strength to carry on with the dancing. Jack Steigerwald was an able master of ceremonies.

BARN DANCE

On January sixth, the Senior Class sponsored a square dance for all CASizens. Despite the rain, the Washington Place Lounge was packed with bluejeans and calico skirts that sashayed at top speed to Fred Reicke's corn throwing three piece band. Beside swinging their Honolulu babies and ducking for the oyster, the dancers were intermittently refreshed with cider and donuts.

Mr. Eugene Cross's chaperone smile broke into a hearty laugh when Mel Alboum slipped and skittered away across the floor during a fast reel. Phyllis Cohen's impromptu performance of the Charleston moved the era up from the 1840's to the 1920's. The pennies thrown her by the appreciative audience were ceremoniously presented by the senior class president, Edwin Ranzenhofer.

A final square of "Good Night, Ladies" brought l'affaire to a close and the happy, but exhausted dancers went into the rain and home.
